

TBR00901AP | Targus 14" Transit Roller

The Targus Transit Roller is designed to fit laptops with up to 14" widescreen laptops and any tablets. This case is a compact model providing protection, functionality and comfort. For a customized, ergonomic fit, the soft-grip oil-tanned leather handles conforms to your hand over time as you use the case. The front zip-down workstation includes phone compartment, pen loops, a business card holder and accessory pockets. Featuring a large separate compartment for apparel storage, this roller provides plenty of space for overnight and separates contents from other case items for added privacy. The reinforced bottom provides a strong and smooth surface that withstands tears and snags caused by everyday usage. For easy transport, the three-tier telescoping handle makes it possible to adjust the height of the trolley while the smooth rolling wheels provide optimal navigation. The Transit Roller is the perfect companion for professionals on the go.
