

TSB75803AP | Targus 16" Sport 26L Backpack

The Sports 26L Backpack provides protection to your laptop and/or your tablet or iPad®, gives you easy access to music and plenty of storage for your everyday accessories. The laptop and tablet are stored in their dedicated padded compartment, while the outer construction of the case has water-resistant finish to protect against moisture and rain. For added protection and secure closure, the Sports 26L Backpack also features dual-sided buckles. A reflective trim on the front panel of the backpack ensures that one can be seen carrying the case even in a dark environment. The Sports 26L Backpack features all the necessary equipment to provide easy access to music, with a dedicated MP3 player pocket in the main laptop compartment as well as a built-in cord and audio jack on the shoulder strap. Just plug in your MP3 player and keep the tunes going while you walk! This backpack has numerous pockets and storage options, including a zippered pocket on the front panel, another one on the top panel, two mesh pockets on the sides of the case, an advanced workstation and a larger section for files and documents. This case is also comfortable to carry thanks to the padded back panel, ergonomic shoulder straps and handle. The Sports 26L Backpack is the answer to a day packed with work, commute and leisure!
