

TSM686AP | Targus 13" Dash II Ultra Messenger

The stylish 2-tone Dash II Ultra Messenger is designed to fit up to 13" Ultrabook™ or slim laptops. The large capacity messenger features a padded laptop compartment made of anti-scratch material to safe guard the surface of your valuable device. The Dash II Ultra Messenger features a deluxe workstation and second large compartment to easily store documents and more. For more storage, there is a dedicated tablet or iPad® compartment made of anti-scratch material to protect your device. The front zippered panel provides additional storage for accessories. The back panel has a back pocket where you can easily store more documents and is heavily padded for protection. The padded/adjustable shoulder strap offers comfort and support and the solid buckle closure keeps the messenger closed and secure. You can easily carry the messenger with the comfortable padded handle. For more protection, the bottom of the messenger is made of weather-resistant material. The Dash II Ultra Messenger is a new silhouette to this range.
